We need you to:

- Help our children who have been abused or neglected.
- Help our children in their community, with their family, friends and support.
- Help keep our families together and not separate brothers and sisters.
- Help develop a child's foundation through our churches, education, and by demonstrating integrity.
- Give support to our families to help children return home to their birth family.
- Give a home to our children who are waiting for a forever family.

Did you know?

Your call could mean a promising future for a child and for your community. Becoming a foster or adoptive parent is easier than you think.

- Classes are free.
- You can be single, married, widowed or divorced.
- Financial and emotional support is there for foster and adoptive parents.

Fostering and adopting strengthens our communities and carries on our culture and heritage.
